St Clare College recently celebrated its annual inter-college cultural fest 'Mayurika 2017'. Sandalwood actor Rishi Tejaswi, Simple

Suni of upcoming movie 'Operation Alamelamma' and present 'Mr South India', Rocky Anthony, were the chief guests for the day.

College principal, Rev Dr Sabu George, and vice-principal, Rev Fr Vineeth George, presided over the function. The fest was attended by more than 2,000 students from across 30 colleges in Bengaluru. The highlight of the day were events like fashion show, group dance, solo dance, 'Adaptune' and solo singing.

A lot of interest was also shown in events like photography, cartooning, face-painting, tattoo designing and pot-painting. The overall championship was bagged by BEL First Grade College.

The show concluded on a high note, as everybody danced, sang and partied at the DJ night, which was held after the fashion show.
