The whole world has come to a standstill, and the reason is pandemic COVID-19. All of a sudden, it seems we are a part of a horror movie. The villainous corona virus is killing thousands of people and we are feeling helpless. It has turned our lives upside down. Even in our dreams, we could have imagined ourselves confined to our homes, with no outings and unable to meet our friends and relatives.

Reasonably the situation has given us a chance to look at things differently. In the beginning, this lockdown was considered as holidays by some children. Once extended, it has made us realize the value of attending schools and colleges. We appreciate the hard work of our teachers who are trying their best to teach us through online classes and providing us with study material. Teachers are not leaving any stone unturned so that we do not waste our precious time sitting idle. Although initially taking online classes was a challenge for them, they have quickly adapted so that our academic path does not get affected. This has taught us never to run away from challenges when life throws them upon us and, try to adapt according to the situation.
